The following outline will be used by a member of The Star's editorial staff to write your wedding story. Please give us the information we need to make yours unique. Some will prefer to emphasize educational or career accomplishments, other the ceremony itself. Return the form as soon as possible. The announcement should appear in The Star the first Thursday following the event. We will not carry the story after six Thursdays have transpired. Use the other side for additional information. Check here if photo is being submitted ().
